SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of FIVE (5) YEARS.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall comply with the standard and special conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall not possess a firearm as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921.

The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons or if deported, within 72 hours of his return to the United States.

The defendant shall pay a fine in the amount of $2,000.00. The defendant shall make fine payment from any wages he may earn in prison in accordance with the Bureau of Prisons Financial Responsibility Program. Any portion of the fine that is not paid in full at the time of the defendant's release from imprisonment shall become a condition of supervision and be paid at the monthly rate of not less than $150.00.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property (real, personal, or rental), residence, office, and/or vehicle, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject of searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall participate in a drug/alcohol treatment program under the guidance and supervision of the United States Probation Officer and if able, contribute to the cost of services for such treatment.

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer and as required by law.
